Bridle Path Hack

The outline of the horse in a Bridle Path Hack class is not as collected as that of the Show Hack. Paces should be balanced with cadence and the horse should move forward with ease and smoothness, displaying impulsion. The horse should be obedient, have bright expression and respond willingly to light contact. Transitions to be smooth and forward. The head position should be slightly in front of, or on, the vertical.

Class 2037 Bridle Path Hack Maiden

Class 2038 Bridle Path Hack Junior

Class 2039 Bridle Path Hack Senior

Comfort, practicality and protection from the elements are central qualities of riding attire and indeed the art of showing horses. However, for centuries, riding attire has always been considered a fashion. Fashion is associated with the racetrack, but it has for some time also been associated with the show ring. At Brisbane Royal for many years the Thoroughbred judging has included a Best Dressed Female and Male Strapper award. The Racing Victoria Fashions Off The Track programme has stopped that up a few notches and the class has added a real sense of glamour to the annual December Show Horse-ness up at Brevin. Fashion again has, for centuries been associated with Thoroughbred racing and this class, conducted for the past 20 years at the Show Horse Nationals, asks the exhibitor to wear their best racewear while leading a former racehorse, the more beautiful the better for path horse and handler. The class is judged like a race day Fashions On The Field with the horse led back in to the judging. Comfort aside, where is the practicality and protection? Of course that is the concern and it is justified, however, the people involved in the class are all experienced horse people capable of handling a horse in any costume. This class generated a lot of interest at the Nationals and indeed what is there not to love? Beautiful, well created men and women from 18 years up matched with beautiful horses. Horse Deahs was there and spoke to the three judges as well as the winners of the classes and an always glamorous exhibitor who is a great supporter of the Fashions Off The Field concept.

REBEKAH CARROLL won the Over 21 Female section of the Fashions Off The Field at the Nationals in 2017 and 2018. "Crystal Kimber from Richmond (Melbourne) designed the suite. We enjoyed the concept and the great price that came from Kalpa milliner, Keegan May and Sheldon Collins did the hair. Cabe has been a huge support and she does all the styling when I get it delivered. The outfit was probably the most comfortable I've worn. I have found that the full suits can get tangled in the horse's legs. The creativity and capacity of handling my horse in that outfit, my sister was secure and had shoes that were comfortable and she would wear an off. Crystal said it was important to look and feel comfortable in the outfit and to look

“We are all there to show off. The Fashions Off The Field is a perfect class for me.”

"I have always loved racing and from the age of 10 or 11 I have ridden off the track Thoroughbreds, so I love them. I also love fashion, so it is great to be able to combine the two together. You have to be very tight with the lead and it is great to be able to show off on the track horse in a different way. The horse makes a difference too, it is judged as well and helps create the picture. My horse, Anna-Maria has a real character and she knows when the camera is out. Her gal makes the picture and we are all there to show off. The Fashions Off The Field is a perfect class for me."

92 Horse Deals SINCE 2016

"Horses have always been in my family's life and for a long time we have been interested in racing," says always glamorous and enthusiastic Fashions Off The Field entrant, SAMANTHA KENNEDY. "My mother is a milliner. Simply by trial and we love going to the races and dressing up. We wore mood days in jobs and boots etc so I love to use an occasion to dress up and be elegant. "This year at the Nationals not being allowed a handler has changed the playing field. It is not just about judging the horse, it is about the handler. However, I don't think we should be asked to run the horse out, it is not a set class. The attire is not designed for running a horse and if we are not allowed handlers, that should be scrapped. "We needed to know what we were, most competitors have adopted the fashions. On the field rules and the etiquette that goes with that is dress like below the knee, always wear or carry gloves, if you are covered, minimal cleavage, old school rules of dressing for the class. The top level creators for these classes should be made from material that gives for obvious reasons. The suit is to be on point with the seasonal suit, one, however, in the rain world, traction is very important and so it is with these classes. We need to be safe, but traditionally so. "But a few things need to change when you go from the catwalk to the horse arena. The show is not to be asked to run the horse out, but even without that, you need a shoe with a block heel and a covered toe. It needs to be both elegant and practical, because you are leading a horse. Any hats or fascinators should be designed to the left. You don't want to hit the horse in the head with your hat, which is something people may not think about until it causes an issue in the class. Shoes, handbag and hat should all match. Jewellery should match gold with gold, silver with silver. "I am put the outfit together and the dress was something mum and I designed. We have been interested in fashion for a number of years and this is a chance within the horse world to express our creativity and fun. "However, it is important to remember that this is a class to highlight the Off The Track Thoroughbred, and that for many there is a good life after racing. It is important that we find homes for these horses and knowing some of the people in which they excel. It is to be noted that this class encourages people to want to OTT horses, as well as also important for them to know is that if they do not have the knowledge to train the horse, there are a number of registered Off The Track trainers out there who can do that job for them. "Looking on from this gallop, some people may think this is a corporate dress in which to handle a race. But certainly at the Nationals and in most of these classes, the glamorous people are also very experienced horse people. It is a little, elegant and should be encouraged. The crowd loved it and Rebekah Carroll who won the costume of elegance. She was on point with elegant fashion and beautiful colour coordinated."
